Dear Professor,

I am writing to ask if we could schedule a short meeting to discuss my project proposal before the submission deadline. I have prepared a prototype of the proposal and would appreciate your feedback before submitting the final version.

Would you be available sometime this week for a brief meeting? I am flexible with the timing and can adjust my schedule according to your availability.

Please let me know a convenient day and time for you. Thank you for your time and guidance.

Yours sincerely,
Binil Bino
